The 1956 Edentonian

FOREWORD

The Senior Class presents the 1956 "Edentonian." In this volume the staff has attempted to portray the activities and the spirit of our school and community life. We hope that it will be a present joy and in the future we hope that it will bring treasured memories of our youth.

Hear our song, Edenton High School Alma Mater

We are the wearers of the blue and gold.

Through the Years ever we hold our full allegiance.

We bring You love and loyalty untold,
Hail to our high school, Glorious forever.'

Full well we know she does not need our praise,

Yet, our hearts tell us that though afar we wander

Cupola Frost
1715
Room - Library

We shall be one with her through all our days.

Tribute To Our Parents

They guided us through our school years, through the trials and troubles that we encountered. When we were discouraged they encouraged us; when we were traveling on the wrong path they showed us the way we should go. When we were happy and all was well they shared that with us also. Their love, faith and encouragement contributed largely to everything we have accomplished, and without them many of us would have fallen along the way. We wish to pay tribute on this page and in our hearts forever to our parents.

A black and white portrait of a woman with dark, wavy hair, wearing a light-colored dress and large, round earrings. She is looking directly at the camera with a slight smile.

Dedication

*As a small way of showing our gratitude for her kindness, help and most of all understanding throughout our High School career, the members of the class of '56 lovingly

Class History

We, the senior class of 1956, are nearing our destination. The road we have traveled has at times been obstructed, but along with the difficulties, we have been the receivers of an abundance of pleasure.

We began our journey when we entered the seventh grade with Mrs. Hollowell and Mrs. Belch as our sponsors. That year we had eighty-two members. Though most of us were small in stature, we had tremendous ideas and ambitions. We put these into effect by organizing a club and presenting a Christmas play. Our esteem was greatly strengthened by the fact that this was our first year of changing classes.

The next step along our journey was the eighth grade. That year Mrs. Hollowell and Mr. Perry were our sponsors. We entered with seventy-seven members. After Christmas of that year we moved to the new Edenton Junior-Senior High School. We each continued to take part in our class and club activities.

The next step led us to the freshman class. We had Mrs. Hollowell and Mr. Thompson as guides and Wayne Keeter as president. We began the year with sixty-six members and welcomed Mr. James as our new principal. We began to gain fame and recognition by having six of our boys on the varsity teams. All of us were enthusiastic and everyone joined some club and took part in many extra-curricular activities.

With our next step we became the sophomore class. With our sixty members, Mrs. Hollowell and Mr. Fry as our sponsors, and Alma Hardison as our president, we became older, wiser, and more active. By this time our members began to play a definite role in their outside activities, for many of them were officers in their particular clubs. We were proud of the fact that Ethel Swets and Robert Earl Edwards won the Aycok Debating Cup. With a thought for the future, we began making money by having the concession stands during exams. We concluded this step by making and carrying a daisy chain for the seniors.

As we stepped further, we became the junior class. We entered with fifty-nine hard working members. Again, under the watch care of Mrs. Hollowell and Mr. Fry, we energetically began to perform the many duties that are found at this stage of the journey. With Hugh Patterson as our president, we ordered our class rings. We knew what the seniors expected in the spring, and we did not want to disappoint them; so, by many money-making projects we raised the amount for the all-important Junior-Senior Prom. Along with our class projects, our members continued to engage in the various school activities. This was the year that the Edenton Aces were the Class A Champions in football, and we were very proud that it contained seven members of our junior class. After several months of hard work we were ready to display our abilities and honor the seniors with the best Junior-Senior ever presented. With the artistic touch of Wayne Keeter and Frances Boyce, the scenery appropriately carried out our theme, a "Roman Holiday." With Dick Levin's Orchestra rendering the music, it became a memorable night for all. Ten of our members served as marshals during Commencement.

Again, with Mrs. Hollowell and Mr. Fry as our sponsors and Wayne Keeter as our president, we began a successful senior year with forty-nine members. In October we gave a tea honoring our parents. We seniors found this to be a busy month for besides a trip to the State Fair, we gave a Halloween dance. However, the remainder of the months were never dull. We finished in January our most important task, publishing our annual. In March we presented our senior-class play, and in April most of us enjoyed the breath-taking excitement of New York, N. Y. Our mascots were Janet Saddler and Tommy Forehand. With June came the grand finale, the commencement exercises. These concluded our journey and a wonderful part of our life, but we shall not stop here. Tomorrow we start a new journey. We hope that as we travel we may endeavor to accomplish our goals and ambitions.

Alma Hardison

~~March~~

Dearest Jimmy,
I'm really not much at writing anything in anybody's annual but I can't even write a straight line. Well, I guess I'll say the usual things, only I'll try to say something a little more different.

Well, it looks like you'll be leaving us this May or first of June.
I can't begin to name the ^{many} good times I've had this year and last year with you in and out of school, although I was disappointed when you got out of the band just because I made majorette. You sure could blow a whistle, I was sorry to see you leave.

I surely will miss you and I hope you'll do the same.
Although we've fussed we've had fun
making up.

Next year at this time it's no telling where you'll be, I guess ~~but~~ I'd still be struggling through school.

I ^{am} looking forward to the yr. br.
and I hope we'll have as much fun this ^{year} as we had last year. (At least) I can't tell you how much I enjoyed that yr. br. last year. It was so pretty - I had the time of my ~~last~~ ^{best} life ~~last~~ night.

Well it looks like I'll just have to stop writing because I've already written about twice or three times
more than you wrote in mine.

I want to wish the best of everything to you next ~~year~~ ^{year} ~~year~~
wherever you will be or whatever you will be doing, I want to tell you that I'll never forget you and I'll think of you lots!

Best of Luck + Happiness +

Love to the nicest boy in the world!!

Love ya always Brenda
